

Happy Birthday Red Sea Strawberry Cake!

As part of the festivities to be held on the National day of the Red Sea governorate, the Chefs of the Red Sea region will offer Hurghada tourists a 432m<sup>2</sup> Strawberry Birthday Cake on Sunday, 22 January, 2012.

The largest strawberry cake ever to be served in Egypt is an initiative of the Red Sea Chefs Chapter, under the umbrella of the Egyptian Chefs Association, to promote and support the tourism industry: Tourism is the main employer and income generator of the Egyptian economy and essential in achieving more stability and better livelihood for all Egyptians.

At 18:00 hrs, the governor of the Red Sea governorate, General Mahmoud Assem Gad, will cut the first slice of the cake and over 200 chefs will serve the cake to the tourists and general public in attendance. With this initiative, the Red Sea chefs hope to get their message across to the world that the beautiful beaches of Egypt are safe and that they look forward to welcome tourists to the region once again.

The Happy Birthday Red Sea Strawberry Cake will consist of:

500 kg	Strawberries
8,800 pc	Eggs
240 kg	Flour
240 kg	Sugar
85 kg	Chantilly Cream
40 kg	Pastry Cream

The event will take place on El Mamsha Road in Hurghada on Sunday, 22 January, from 16:00 to 21:00hrs. Tourists and the general public are invited to enjoy the Red Sea Festival Day activities such as folkloric shows, traditional music and dance while enjoying a slice of the delicious Strawberry Birthday Cake. This promises to be an event to enjoy and a chance to take magnificent pictures of the largest strawberry cake ever prepared in Egypt with over 200 chefs in action all around it!
